MTA UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1. Facility Update
Ron Aubol provided an update on shelter installations – three on Skokomish reservation; pad and bench in place near 40 et 8 in Shelton with future plans to install a shelter there; and City permit obtained to install a shelter behind Safeway on 7th Street. Wooden shelters located throughout the County will be replaced with the surplus shelters obtained from Intercity Transit.

2. Transit Community Center Update
Libby Avery provided highlights of September activities and programs at the Transit Community Center submitted by Community Center Association Manager, Jeri Wilkinson. The facility met all requirements of the Area Agency on Aging’s ADA Accessibility survey allowing the STARS program as a new tenant. A Mobility and Walkability Survey was conducted in North Mason. Frontage improvements were completed by the City improving access for Mason Transit buses and the general public.

3. Customer Survey
Staff provided highlights from the August 2011 Customer Survey conducted and answered questions raised.

4. GM Selection Report
Four candidates for the General Manager position participated in the assessment center exercises, a public reception and interviews. Following the special meeting held on September 30, the Authority Board announced that Brad Patterson and Steve Hamelin will be recommended to the full Board as the final top two candidates. Cathy Silins and Kathy Cook were commended for their combined effort in this process. Further evaluation of the qualifications of the applicants is scheduled under Executive Session.

5. 2010 Audit Update
Staff reported that the 2010 Audit was conducted, and anticipates the exit conference to be scheduled in November. The State Auditor’s office will report a recommendation to improve upon fixed asset tracking.

Additional audits included a Federal Transit Administration Audit conducted on Washington State Department of Transportation where as part of the oversight process, Mason Transit provided records associated with grant funds; and Department of Revenue Audit on leasehold tax, resulted in notice that a refund is pending.

6. 2012 Budget Process
A budget review committee meeting is scheduled to be held on October 20, 2011 beginning at 9:00 am. Public hearings will be held on November 8 and December 13. Proposed 2012 budget will be distributed county-wide the week of October 24.

MTA NEW BUSINESS:

1. Vehicle Washing
Representatives from the Department of Ecology (DOE) performed a site visit with positive results and a requirement to use hot water only during the vehicle wash process. Staff has since confirmed with DOE that use of detergents is not an issue. As a proactive measure, staff arranged for a meeting and training with Mason County storm water management representatives.
GENERAL MANAGER’S REPORT:
Dave O’Connell reported on a potential bill submitted by WSDOT that will allow them to bill back grant administration costs to transit agencies up to 5%.

Washington State Transit Association (WSTA) revised membership dues, doubling in amount Mason Transit dues with no adjustment in level of votes. Mason Transit is submitting a revised operating budget to WSTA as dues are not an allowable expense under state grant revenues.

OPERATIONS REPORT:
Mike Oliver provided highlights of the September 2011 Operations Summary report. Nine cutaway vehicles authorized through the State capital grant award have been ordered.
