From left, Mason County Commissioner Randy Neatherlin, Petersen Chiropractic owner Brian Petersen and North Mason Chamber CEO Stephanie Rowland unveil the first completed wayfinding sign that the chamber is rolling out.

is more than one-quarter of the way toward its goal to raise $20,000 for new signs in North Mason.

The wayfinding signs will direct people to various locations, such as parks, and business owners may also purchase the signs to display outside of their business.

Mason Transit Authority is the first organization to step up to purchase a sign. For more information, contact Stephanie Rowland at 275-4267 or srowland@northmasonchamber.com.
