

Helping hands

Journal photo by Gordon Weeks

Hundreds of people — including employees who have been laid off from Simpson Lumber Co. and Olympic Panel Products and their families — attended a Community Resource Fair on May 27 at the MTA Transit-Community Center in downtown Shelton. They received information on employment services, basic services and utilities, financial institutions, mortgage resources, health and insurance, assistance programs, retirement planning and community resources.